Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

There is perhaps a desire within each person to be successful, outstanding, and recognized by others. Students hope to receive good grades, employees hope to be promoted, businessmen hope to expand and grow their companies, and scientists hope to make ground-breaking discoveries. This inner drive for excellence motivates us to work hard and to persevere in times of difficulty. On the other hand, when are we successful enough? Is there an ultimate standard for success? What is the definition of a successful life in the Bible? How can we achieve excellence? If you are interested in these questions, please come join us for some discussions this Saturday afternoon in a workshop titled "In Search of Excellence". Several brothers from our church will share with you their stories and life lessons.

You are cordially invited to the following activities at CCCFW this weekend:

Friday (10/12): There is no Bible study meeting this week.

Saturday (10/13): The "In Search of Excellence" workshop starts at 3pm and ends at 8pm. There will be a break between 5-6pm during which the church will provide dinner for the participants.

Sunday (10/14): Worship starts at 10:45 AM. Brother Guomin Shan will give a sermon titled "Abundant Blessings" (上好的福分) based on John 2: 1-11. Dong Chen will lead the worship; Guanglan & Rong Huang will be our ushers; and Chao Chen our interpreter. Children can attend the programs at the First Assembly of God that tailored for different age group. After lunch Elder Chung-wen will lead the Adult Sunday School discussion; you are encouraged to participate. A prayer meeting follows right after the Sunday school before we leave the church by 3:00 PM.

We look forward to seeing you this Weekend!
