Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

While the summer heat is still in our memory, the leaves have already started to show autumn colors. A question on the mind of many people is " what will the weather be like this winter?" In a recent interview with reporters, a climatologist answered that because so many factors are at play, it is difficult to make accurate predictions of the weather patterns at this point. Although it's not clear whether the winter will be cold and snowy or warm and dry, we know that every day is a gift from God and it is to be enjoyed and lived to the fullest. God also bestows various gifts on each person according to the grace given to each of us. May we use them to build up each other and the church family. On Sunday Elder Chung-wen will share with us what the Bible teaches about using our gifts.

You are cordially invited to the following activities at CCCFW this weekend:

Friday (10/5): There is no Bible study meeting this week.

Sunday (10/7): Worship starts at 10:45 AM. Elder Chung-wen Chen will give a sermon titled "Faithfully Administering God's Grace in Its Various Forms" based on Romans 12: 3-8 and 1 Corinthians 12: 26-27. Guoping will lead the worship; Guanglan & Rong Huang will be our ushers; and Ross our interpreter. Children can attend the programs at the First Assembly of God that tailored for different age group. After lunch Longmen will lead the Adult Sunday School discussion; you are encouraged to participate. A prayer meeting follows right after the Sunday school before we leave the church by 3:00 PM.

We look forward to seeing you this Weekend!
