Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

Our Friday Bible Study is once again learning the book of " Genesis" , this week we will talk about " The fall of Adam and Eve" . It is one of the saddest moments in history: God thought it was not good for Adam to be alone, so He made Eve to be his helper, it supposed to be perfect companion to each other, but when Adam and Eve were facing God later, they blamed other in order to shift the responsibilities. Adam said: " The woman whom you gave me, she gave me some fruit from the tree and I ate it." while Eve said: " The serpent tricked me, and I ate."

Are you familiar with this kind situation? What would you response if you were Adam or Eve? How to keep a healthy relationship with others?

CCCFW will hold a workshop of " The Art of Human Relationships" on March 9 (next Saturday) from 3pm to 8pm. Sister Michelle Li from Indianapolis Chinese Church will be the speaker. She is now studying at Logos Evangelical Seminary (Chicago campus). There will be one session (how to get along with others) in the afternoon, followed by dinner provided by the church, and a second session (how to regard conflicts) on Saturday night. The workshop will include case studies, group discussion, questions & answers and short quiz. So if you want to enhance your relationship skills, don't miss this opportunity.

You are cordially invited to the following activities at CCCFW this weekend.
