Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

The dead pigs in "HuangPu River" (Shanghai, China) became a hot topic not only in China but also in American Chinese society recently. People are so surprised that "the mother river" for "Shanghainese" suddenly becomes a huge dumpster of thousands of dead pigs. People are also wondered till now we don't know where these pigs came from and why they died. "Shanghainese" even worried that whether they are drinking the fresh water or "pork soup"?

After investigation, one officer presented several causes that why the dead pigs are in the river, but the basic motivation we can see is "economic benefit". The reality of selfishness and indifference and the desire for materials result from the "Money worship". But how many people would like to drink this kind of water even be given money?

The world is so broken and it is so difficult to be in the world without being of the world. That is why our life needs light, true light, Jesus Christ's true light!
