Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

Your tongue is a great source of power, and it can do many things.

It can nourish and heal: soft words remove wrath, heal wounded hearts; pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones; encouraging and positive words can uplift a person...

However the tongue is also a source of destruction: Harsh words create anger; gossip scorch close relationships; lies tarnish the reputation; cursing harms oneself as much as those spoken against...

Do you want your tongue to be a tool and an asset of your wisdom? Come to join us this weekend's workshop.

CCCFW will hold a workshop of "The Art of Human Relationships" on March 9 (Saturday) from 3pm to 8pm. Sister Michelle Li from Indianapolis Chinese Church will be the speaker. She is now studying at Logos Evangelical Seminary (Chicago campus). There will be one session (how to get along with others) in the afternoon, followed by dinner provided by the church, and a second session (how to regard conflicts) on Saturday night. The workshop will include case studies, group discussion, questions & answers and short quiz. On March 10 (Sunday), sister Michelle will continue this topic and focus on wisdom of speech.

Kind reminder: Daylight saving time will start from this Sunday, don't forget to turn your clock one hour earlier before you go to bed this Saturday night.

You are cordially invited to the following activities at CCCFW this weekend.

Friday (3/8): Bible study is skipped due to the workshop on Saturday.

Saturday (3/9): Sister Michelle Li will lead a workshop on "The Art of Human Relationship" from 3pm – 8 pm at church.

Sunday (3/10): worship starts at 10:45a.m. Sister Michelle Li will continue her human relationship series and deliver a message of "The Wisdom in Speech" (说话的智慧) based on scriptures of Proverb (箴) 25: 11, 12: 25, 12: 19. Sister Xiulin will lead the singspiration. Sister Christy will be the interpreter. Brother Charlie and Sister Lixin will serve as the ushers. Children can attend the programs at the First Assembly of God that tailored for different age groups. After lunch, we will have adult Sunday school and a pray meeting before leaving for home.

We look forward to seeing you this weekend.
