Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

Yesterday I took my little kids to a magic show at the library. I've seen different magic shows with fabulous tricks, but this one is somewhat unique. The magician didn't make much intriguing tricks, but his show is both entertaining and inspirational for his children audience. For example, he built his program around books and embedded the virtues of good character, creativity, and self-confidence into the show. I think the kids not only enjoyed the show there, but also took something valuable back home with them. I later checked the magician's website (<http://www.daniellusk.com>) and found out that he is a Christian.

Often case, we were told to avoid talking directly about Christianity at workplace because we may make "trouble" and be pissed off. But there are ways to witness God in whatever we do. Sometimes with some smart design as the Christian magician did for the kids. Or more often, let ourselves be changed and more like Jesus and let His virtues smoothly flow out from us.

You are cordially invited to the following programs at CCCFW this weekend:

Friday (6/22): Our Bible study and fellowship will continue this Friday. We will start at 7pm with a couple of songs lead by Chung-wen, followed by a fun game prepared by Minjie. Nai ce (Zesheng's mom) will continue to guide our Bible discussion in the book of John.

Sunday (6/24): The worship starts at 10:45 am. Brother Frank Yang will give a sermon "Uniquely Created" based on the scriptures of Luke 10: 38-40. Brother Guoping will lead the singspiration. Sisters Guanglan & Huang Rong will serve as the usher and Chao will be the sermon interpreter. Children can attend the age appropriate programs at the First Assembly of God. After sermon and lunch, we will spend some time in sweet prayers.

We look forward to seeing you this weekend.
