Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

The biggest news of this week probably is " Colorado Theater Shooting" . Couple days ago, President Obama delivered a speech at the memorial service, some words really worth us thinking:

" Such evil is senseless – beyond reason. But while we will never know fully what causes someone to take the life of another, we do know what makes that life worth living.

And if there's anything to take away from this tragedy, it's a reminder that life is fragile. Our time here is limited and it is precious. And what matters in the end are not the small and trivial things which often consume our lives. It's how we choose to treat one another, and love one another. It's what we do on a daily basis to give our lives meaning and to give our lives purpose. That's what matters. "

Yes, what' s the purpose of our lives? That is a very important question. Have you found the answer? A lot of people can witness that the answer is in Jesus!

You are cordially invited to the following activities at CCCFW this weekend.
