Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

Happy Independence Day!

Independence Day, commonly known as the Fourth of July, is commemorating the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, declaring the 13 colonies legally separated from the Kingdom of Great Britain.

" We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. "

This (in the Declaration of Independence) has been called "one of the best-known sentences in the English language", containing "the most potent and consequential words in American history." The passage came to represent a moral standard to which the United States should strive. Unfortunately, now we only focus on equal, rights, liberty... but neglect the two words " created" and " Creator" . We only associate this holiday to patriotism, not religionism.

Look around you, the sky, the star, the tree, the flower, the bird, the water... How can you deny there is a Creator?

You are cordially invited to the following activities at CCCFW this weekend.
