Dear Brothers, Sisters and Friends,

Last Saturday several brothers and sisters gathered at the Brother Jim and Sister Wen' s newly remodeled house to celebrate the completion of their hard work over two years and seven months. As we toured " The Millers' White House, " we adored loving craftsmanship at every turn—Jim' s floor plans, Wen' s painting, Jim' s woodwork, Wen' s wallpaper, Jim' s bathtub installation, Wen' s bedroom decoration ...The endless oohs and ahhs still couldn' t describe our joyous findings. Jim and Wen of course were all smiles; and we also witnessed their deepened love and trust to each other—the goal -setting, the plans, the negotiation, the adjustment, the searching for materials, and the time spent together working and praying...it is a beautiful piece of God' s blessing and the couple' s perseverance. This also reminded us of the building or renovating of our spiritual life—we need to let God tear down the old stuff, haul away the rubbish, strengthen the beams, and install the new equipment. The difference can be this project takes three in one to complete—God our Father, Jesus our Savior, and Holy Spirit our Counselor certainly will work together seamlessly. The question is, are we ready for the renewal?

You are cordially invited to the following activities at CCCFW and at West Lafayette this weekend:

Friday (9/14) fellowship and Bible study will be skipped due to an evangelistic rally in the weekend. Many brothers and sisters will be attending Rev. Stephen Tang' s evangelistic rally this weekend at West Lafayette, hosted by the Local Chinese Church and other Christian groups. Rev. Tang is a great evangelist, well-known among Christians in Taiwan, South East Asia, and North America. It' s really a great opportunity to listen to him. You are also invited. Please see the attached poster for details, and feel free to participate.

Sunday (9/16): Worship starts at 10:45 AM. Sister Michelle Li from CCCI will give a message titled " From Fisher of Fish to Fisher of Men" (从捕鱼到捕人) based on Luke 5: 1-11. Sister Wei Guo will lead the worship; Sisters Ni ngning & Su Zhang (Lan) will be our ushers; Brother Dong our interpreter. Children can attend the programs at the First Assembly of God that tailored for different age groups. After lunch there will be Adult and Children Sunday Schools. Brother Guoping will lead the Adult Sunday School this week, and you are encouraged to participate. Catechism class II will also be given during the Sunday school time for those who want to be baptized and
